

WESTERLY

The Westerly Sanitary corps presented a musical comedy Thursday afternoon, in recognition of the work they have done as Westerly's visiting nurses. The two young women have resigned here and will go to Bar Harbor, Me. Miss Helen Benson, a former Westerly girl, and Miss Ethel Miller of Springfield, Mass., have been secured to fill the local vacancies. As Miss Miller will be unable to report here before July, Mrs. Berice Young will substitute until that time.

The musical comedy at Westerly High school Thursday evening and Friday afternoon attracted record audiences, and the acting and staging of the youthful amateurs were amply applauded. Every part in the cast was well interpreted. The success of the production is due largely to the efforts of Robert Valentine and Miss Jennie B. Stanton, instructors in music and dramatics at the school.

The cast follows: Bill, the Middy, attached to the "Dreadnaught," Edward Spargo; Dawson, a retired farmer, Alexander Elliot; the Count, a Spanish Gentleman, Harris Browning; Evans Master of Ceremonies, L. B. C. Clifford Longworth; Pina, of the house committee, Lakewood Boat club, Kenneth Hoxie; Captain Dauber, in command of "Dreadnaught," Frank Robertson; Boudier, champion oarsman, L. B. C. Clifford Bowditch; Young Blinn, Ruth Wilcox.

The Westerly fire department was called out about 1 o'clock Friday afternoon for a blaze in a barn owned by Joseph Gabrielle at 23 Oak street. The barn was partly destroyed before the firemen could extinguish the flames.

There will be a special meeting of the Westerly town council in the council chamber this (Saturday) afternoon at 4 o'clock, at which time the daylight saving ordinance for Westerly will be discussed and a vote taken. The public schools at Westerly, with the exception of Dunn's Corner school, the banks and all of the churches with the exception of St. Michael's church in Pawcatuck, will adopt the daylight saving time.

The manager of the Westerly division of the Shore Line Electric Railway company announced Friday that cars on the Groot and Stonington, Norwich and Westerly, Ashaway and Westerly, Westerly and Watch Hill and the Old Mystic lines will be run on daylight saving time, commencing Sunday morning.

A large per centage of the manufacturing plants of New London and Norwich are to set their clocks ahead Sunday and as many of the workers patronize the trolleys, the company is placed in a position where it will be necessary to operate cars running into those cities on daylight saving time.

The announcement was sent out by the federal reserve bank that it will operate under the daylight saving schedule. The Westerly banking houses will adopt the same schedule opening next Monday morning on daylight saving time.

Practically every church in Westerly and Pawcatuck will go on daylight saving Sunday morning. An exception is the case of St. Michael's church, which announced last week that for this coming Sunday services would be as usual on standard time in the absence of any ruling to the contrary.

St. Michael's stated that a definite policy would be announced later. At a special meeting of the Granite Cutters' union Thursday evening it was voted to work on standard time.

The employees of the White Rock mills took a unanimous vote in favor of daylight saving Friday morning, according to an announcement made from the office of the company.

Among the other manufacturing plants and business houses which have announced that they will operate under daylight saving are the Westerly Textile company, Rogers, Rogers and Pawcatuck Woolen company, Whittall Electric company, C. B. Cottrell and Sons company, William Clark Thread company, Lorraine Manufacturing company.

Local Incidents

All cases on the docket were continued at the regular session of the Third district court Friday morning.

The Narragansett hotel at Watch Hill has been purchased by Louis and Morris Silverstein and Samuel Fain, of Westerly.

A successful card party to raise funds for Westerly council of the Girl Scouts was held Friday afternoon in the Rhode Island hotel dining room.

The trains on the New Haven road will be shifted one hour ahead Sunday morning, to comply with the daylight saving ordinance of various cities on the road.

Mrs. Joseph Murphy, wife of the representative from the first district, who has recently been elected to the hospital in Providence, is much improved. At present Mrs. Murphy is visiting her brother, Rev. Austin J. O'Toole, at Narragansett Pier.

Jacob Otto and Arthur Fraquell have returned to their homes in Westerly after a visit to Porto Ceresio, Italy.

The Odd Ladies of Westerly plan to hold an elaborate dance next week. Music will be furnished by Sutcliffe's orchestra.

Michael Brown has been appointed stationary fireman at the Westerly post office. He has been a temporary employee of the office for the past three months.

This week the market price of fish has been low and only small shipments have been made as a result. The catch of cods have been cleaned, so this source of supply has been cut off. Some of the craft have gone to Block Island waters in search of catches.

The smack Magnolia returned from Mystic Friday. She has been hauling out, cleaned and painted and is in commission for the summer fishing cruise. Capt. G. C. Eldredge has had a most successful season the past winter and sold a number of large catches in New York.

Mrs. Harry S. Babcock, who has spent his winter in Florida, arrived here Friday and has opened her Main street home.

Charles Smith, cook on the smack Magnolia, has returned from a stay of week in New York.

Edwin R. Browning is home from Nashua, N. H., where he has been employed for several months.

A carload of lumber came in Thursday for the Atwood Machine Co. and the company is now loading machinery to go to Japan.

Charles S. and William E. Ryan are having a set of 16 by 8 scales set on the property of the former on High street.

JEWETT CITY

Miss Agnes Brickley, a student at Chandler Secretarial School, Boston, is at her home on Matheson street, for a few days and has as her guest, Miss Anna Murphy of Boston.

Several local onion raisers had themselves with a considerable number of bushels on hand which it is impossible to move. One man will lose as many as twenty-five bushels. There is but small demand in the local stores, where onions are reported to be sprouting badly.

A groceryman thinks the price went so high in war times that people couldn't afford to eat onions. And now, he is not back to normalcy. As a result of price comparison with 1913 sale statement shows that four staples, potatoes, onions, cornmeal and lard are found to be lower today than the year before the war.

In war times lard got up to 44 cents per pound; today it is 14 1/2 cents. People bought a substitute for lard; today that substitute is away above head in price.

A local young man attended a party of some sort not long ago. The next day Gerald Wolf conferred that he was pretty careful how he kissed the girls. "Afraid of microbes," inquired his friend. "No," said he, "painter's colic."

According to the new train schedule trains will leave Jewett City for Providence at 6:17, 11:01 a. m. Saturdays, 2:47 p. m. And will leave Plainfield for Williamstown, 7:51 a. m., 1:31 p. m., Saturday, 4:54 p. m. And for the week time.

The Cycle club minstrels at the Fian Opera House, May 2.—adv.

Samuel Derrance, of Plainfield, a 14-year-old lad, went to Round Hill farm Friday, and sheared 35 sheep for the proprietor, James B. Palmer. He did the job in seven hours and a half. He sheared one sheep in 6 1/2 minutes. All the sheep were large and in full fleece.

To conform to the daylight saving plan which is to be adopted by the mills and business houses in the borough of Jewett City and other places, the Jewett City Savings Bank will open and close one hour earlier each day during the time such plan is in force.—adv.

A Father and Son banquet was held in the Congregational vestry Thursday evening, under the direction of the local Y. M. C. A. group. Sixty men and boys enjoyed the excellent supper of roast beef, brown gravy, mashed potatoes, pickled beets, sweet pickles, rolls, cake, ice cream and coffee. The tables were unusually attractive in their decorations.

Each waitress decorated her own table. On Miss Eleanor Stetson's table was a glass basket of sultana blossoms and heliotrope. Beautiful stalks of snapdragon in a basket and candlesticks with pink shades, were on Miss Rosina Alfie's table.

Miss Isabel Marshall's table had a large basket of forsythia, flowering quince, and wild cherry blossoms, also candlesticks with pink shades. Miss Beattie Thompson's table centerpiece was a handsome begonia, and there were two green shaded candlesticks.

Miss Sadie Thompson's table held a large pot of primroses. The speaker's table, where Miss Anna Littlefield was waitress, was decorated with white. The centerpiece was a platoon-mirror on which was a

SUFFERED SINCE CHILDHOOD

With Chronic Constipation — Headaches. Completely Relieved by "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

OTIS M. BRYANT

49 Anderson St., Portland, Maine.

"I was troubled with Constipation ever since I can remember; as a result, was subject to distressing Headaches and pain in my left side. I would go for two or three days without any movement of the bowels. I chanced to read about 'Fruit-a-tives' in one of our local papers, and began their use about four months ago. Since then, I have been free from Headaches, my bowels have been regular, and from the use of several boxes of 'Fruit-a-tives', I feel that the great benefit I have derived justifies me in recommending them as a remedy of true and exceptional merit."
